

Western Academy 2024 Summer Reading Assignment

Entering Seventh

The Summer Reading Assignment is designed to cultivate a love of reading among our students and prepare them for the fall academic culture at Western Academy. The books, stories and poems have been carefully selected to foster an enjoyable and thoughtful reading experience. The memorized poetry and completed readings are due the first day of school. The first weeks of school will include discussion and work on the summer reading and poetry.

Here are the steps to complete this assignment successfully.

~ Read all assigned books, stories, and poems.

~ Memorize the poem to recite for the first week of school. Practice reciting it to your family.

Suggestions for enjoyable completion of summer work:

- ~ Read (or have a parent read) some of the stories aloud (unabridged audio books can also be used) while the student reads along with his book. Read the poem aloud at dinner and discuss!
- ~ Set up a schedule early in the summer (for example: 30 minutes of reading every day before lunch).
- ~ Take notes after reading so you are ready for the summer reading assignments upon returning to school in the fall.

Books:

- Call of the Wild by Jack London (Adventure Fiction); ISBN 9780141321059
- King Solomon's Mines by H. Rider Haggard (Adventure Fiction); ISBN 9780486447827
- True Grit by Charles Portis (Western Fiction); ISBN 9781468306293

Poem:

The Windhover

by Gerard Manley Hopkins

To Christ Our Lord

I caught this morning morning's minion, kingdom of daylight's dauphin, dapple-dawn-drawn Falcon, in his riding
Of the rolling level underneath him steady air, and striding
High there, how he rung upon the rein of a wimpling wing
In his ecstasy! then off, off forth on swing,
As a skate's heel sweeps smooth on a bow-bend: the hurl and gliding
Rebuffed the big wind. My heart in hiding
Stirred for a bird, – the achieve of, the mastery of the thing!
Brute beauty and valour and act, oh, air, pride, plume, here
Buckle! AND the fire that breaks from thee then, a billion
Times told lovelier, more dangerous, O my chevalier!

No wonder of it: shéer plóid makes plough down sillion
Shine, and blue-bleak embers, ah my dear,
Fall, gall themselves, and gash gold-vermilion.
